

YOUNG MAN PLACES HIMSELF UNDER ARREST

Sheriff T. A. DeVine confesses that he was beaten at his own game this afternoon when a young man came into the office and placed himself under arrest. The young fellow went at it in rather a surprising way and the sheriff was caught completely off his guard. The self-arrested man is 25 years old and he approached Mr. DeVine, saying:

"Are you looking for George L. Cole of Seattle?"

"No, why do you ask?"

"Well, I am Cole and I am wanted in Seattle for forgery and also for breaking my parole at the reformatory."

"I guess I had better lock you up," the sheriff added, "and find out whether you are telling the truth. But, young man, I don't understand why you voluntarily give yourself up."

"Well, sheriff, it is like this," the young man said, "My grandfather, who was a heavy fur dealer, recently died and I am heir to about $10,000. I want to go back after the money and I thought about the easiest way would be for me to give myself up and have the officers come after me. I would have to go back there anyway and I concluded that the charge against me would not be so bad, if I gave you the information. I am ready to return to Seattle as soon as the officers come after me and I should like you to get word to the officers as soon as possible."

Sheriff DeVine has wired the officers of Seattle and also the officials of the state reformatory, advising them of his new catch.

EXTRAORDINARY PLAY AT ORACLE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Harry D. Carey supported by Olive Golden and an all-star cast of Champion Roughriders of the world in "A Knight of the Range," a red feather play in 5 parts, produced by Jacques Jaccard.

Everyone loves a real hero, whether he wears a soldier's uniform or the chaps of a cowboy.

"The Knight of the Range" is a tremendous story of the chivalry of a true-hearted story of the west, where men grow big of soul as well as of body.

"His sacrifices for a friend are incidental to one of the most romantic of love stories, and the magnificent western settings, the dash and go of the spirited action combine to make a feature as noteworthy as the acting of that great 'Broadway favorite' Harry D. Carey."

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. BERTHA DUNN

Mrs. Bertha Dunn, wife of Thomas Dunn of 3066 Washington avenue, died very suddenly this morning at 1:30 o'clock at the Dea hospital. Nephritis was the cause of death. Mrs. Dunn was in town yesterday afternoon shopping and also attended a theatre. She became ill suddenly last evening and was immediately taken to the hospital where every effort to save her was without avail.

Mrs. Dunn was born in Laramie, Wyo., August 28, 1874, the daughter of John and Jane Boyd Owen. She has resided in Ogden the past six years and was married to Thomas Dunn December 23, 1914.

Mrs. Dunn was very well known in Laramie where she attended the convent of S. H. C.

Beside her husband, one brother, W. L. Owen of Salt Lake and one sister, Mrs. James Wilson of Ogden, survive. Remains were taken to the Laramie chapel and private funeral services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the home, 3066 Washington avenue, Father Cushman officiating.

Friends will be received at the home Sunday from 6 to 9 p. m., Monday from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and Tuesday to funeral hour. Interment Mountain View cemetery. (Cheyenne papers please copy).

HAZEL DAWN UNSURPASSABLE AS DETECTIVE

Double feature program at the Alhambra next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday: Hazel Dawn and Blanche Sweet.

Girl detectives are hard to play on the screen without making them seem too melodramatic. Therefore the wonderful performance of Hazel Dawn in the Famous Players Film Company's production, "My Lady Ino," in which this delightful star appears, is all the more remarkable for the thorough artistry displayed by her interpretation of Nell Carroll. It is a sympathetic role which is especially appealing because Nell is a self-reliant southern beauty who faces extreme perils unflinchingly and asks no quarter from anyone. The story is a powerful combination of thrills and comic situations with always the suspense of uncertainty and the excitement which comes from the battling of keen intellects for supremacy when the stakes are big.

Blanche Sweet, the beautiful photogenic star, will be seen in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Ragamuffin," written by William C. DeMille, the noted American dramatist, who also directed the making of the picture.

Miss Sweet, since her first appearance on the screen, has, by her wonderful dramatic instinct and charming personality, youth and beauty, placed herself as the leading star in the photodramatic firmament. Since she has been under the direction of the Jesse L. Lasky company she has added greatly to her popularity and is now one of the greatest of the firm favorites and it is said that in her clever interpretation as a girl of the slums in "The Ragamuffin," she is seen in a character totally unlike anything in which she has heretofore appeared.

William C. DeMille, who wrote this thrilling drama especially for Miss Sweet and who personally directed the production, is one of America's leading playwrights, having been the author of "The Woman," "The Warnings of Virginia," "Strongheart" and many other of the many successful spoken dramas. Ever since the forming of the Lasky Company he has been in charge of its photodramatic department and the splendid scenarios for which this company is famous are due to his knowledge and technique.

Tom Forman, the clever young juvenile, who plays opposite Blanche Sweet, made his first appearance as a member of the Lasky Company with Edith Tulliver in "Young Romance." He was also leading man for Ina Claire and has always been prominently identified in Lasky productions.

Following the snow storm of yesterday, the temperature dropped to 11 degrees above zero, the minimum point not being reached, however, until the latter part of the night. The fall in temperature caused the slush to harden and this morning the surface of the streets was hard and smooth, affording good sleighing. Snow throughout the city is from 6 to 8 inches deep.

Since the heavy wind of Friday night, the Ogden, Logan & Idaho Railway company has been put to considerable inconvenience in operating cars of the interurban line to Preston, a 20-mile strip between Dewey and Mendon being almost impassable because of the heavy drifts of snow in the cuts. It is stated today, however, that headway has been made with the snow plows and shovellers. Regular trains may be running to Preston before the day is over.

City service today is on schedule time and the Huntville car has succeeded in getting over the canyon line. The North Ogden car is still snowbound in a cut just beyond the North Ogden station and it is uncertain as to whether service to Pleasant View will be resumed before tomorrow.

The mean temperature in Ogden today has been about 25 degrees above zero.

MEXICAN BANDITS KIDNAPED GIRLS

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 29.—General Miguel Hernandez, former Villa commander of Pearson, western Chihuahua, and his band of about 125 men, was attacked by Mexican ranchers of Cocomorachic in the Guerrero district and lost all of their horses, rifles and ammunition, according to a report reaching the border today. The ranchers reported fourteen Mexican girls had been kidnaped by the bandits.

According to the report, Hernandez, who recently was refused amnesty by the Carranza government, gathered all his forces together at Pearson for a return to Zacatecas.

Passing through Cocomorachic, it was reported, he kidnaped fourteen girls, aged from 12 to 14 years, Manuel Tozano, father of one of the girls, raised the company of ranchers of the district. After two days' march the ranchers surprised the bandits and opened fire.

The bandits were unable to reach their mounts and rifles, according to the report, and after about forty of the bandits had been killed the others fled.

About fifty ranchers were said to have been in the attacking party.

WEBER COUNTY DAY AT THE ROUND-UP

February 2nd is to be Weber County day at the round-up. Arrangements have been made with the O. S. L. R. R. for the trip. The city commissioners will be represented, the county superintendent of schools will attend, and the directors of the Weber county farm bureau will be there.

PARENTS OF DEAD MAN ARRIVE

O. N. Cherrington and wife arrived in Ogden last evening at about 8 o'clock and returned to Blackfoot, Idaho, at 1:45 this morning with the body of their son, Roy Cherrington, who was found dead along the Oregon Short Line right-of-way in the vicinity of Riverdale Thursday morning.

The parents were greatly distressed over the untimely death of their son and they were at a loss to know just how it happened. They could not understand why he was walking across the country, and without means, as he could have obtained money from them at any time had he been in need. They said he was an industrious young man and never out of employment. The last letter they received from him was in November. He wrote from a construction camp in Nevada and told his parents that he expected to go to Jerome, Idaho, for winter work.

They were not certain whether they could get through to Blackfoot today on account of the deep snow, but they stated that if they could reach Pocatello, they would make the rest of the distance, 25 miles, by auto.

DIVORCES GRANTED BY DISTRICT COURT

The plaintiff has been given a decree of divorce in the district court in the case of Nettie Parsons against George C. Parsons on the grounds of failure to provide and drunkenness. The decree provides that Mrs. Parsons shall have the care and custody of the minor child, $15 a month alimony and attorney fees.

In the divorce case of Rosabel Ingebreten against Paul Ingebreten, the default of the defendant has been entered.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to thank, through the columns of this paper, my many friends who assisted and helped during the sickness and demise of my wife, Anna Cheshorn. In a special manner I wish to offer my appreciation to the singers and speakers at the funeral, and to all who in any way showed their willingness to assist in my trouble.

GEORGE R. CHESHORN.

'THE LITTLE UPSTART' AT ORACLE TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

One theme of life that never grows tiresome or hackneyed is the universal call of youth for its mate. Back in the Neolithic age the young man went forth clad in his bearskins to do his wooing with a club. Frequently he had to drag the choice of his heart back to his cavern in the mountain-side by her hair, but nevertheless the quest for a mate was accomplished.

During the advance in civilization methods of courtship have undergone many radical changes, but still the present-day lover remains a cave man at heart when the object of his attentions is threatened and reverts to the primitive to gain his ends.

Love affairs among the rich and those in the higher circles of polite society are often carried on in a prosaic and matter of fact way. The omnipotent desire for an ideal mate is not so strongly developed, perhaps as it is among the ordinary everyday people who are forced to struggle hard for their daily bread. It is the worker who fights to the end against heavy odds to furnish the home for his sweetheart and undergoes all danger to protect her. Nana Clausen in "The Little Upstart" is a working girl who needed protection and when the big temptation presented itself she found it. How Nana found herself is one of the big dramas of motion picture which solves a problem vital to all of us.

The Alhambra box office will open at 12 o'clock tomorrow for tomorrow for "Melba" seat sale.
